DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5 and 10 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Makoto (JP07-163077).

Makoto discloses fig.1-4 a component rotating machine comprising: a plurality of coils (6) each wound on the pole teeth of a core (B1-B8) through a bobbin (4). The bobbin having portions surrounding the pole teeth of the core (for receiving coil windings) and an integral terminal portion (72) spaced radially from the coil windings, a plurality of wiring conductors (8) integrally carried by the bobbin winding receiving portions (17), each of the wiring conductors having one terminal end (16) connected to at least one of the coil ends and another terminal end (22) exposed within the terminal portion for connection to one external electrical connector (21) through the terminal portion.

Makoto also disclose, a bobbin having mating halves (4a 4b) that encircle the pole teeth wherein, the conductor are all carried by one of the matting halves and the bobbin is formed, integrally, with a plurality of internal wiring connectors (23) each being formed with a terminal hole (16A), into which a coil is led and a connecting block (21) to be inserted in both of the terminals holes to provide a connection circuit.

Art Unit: 2834

Referring to claims 5, no patentable weight has been given to the method of manufacturing limitations (i. e. molded) since “even though product-by-process claims are limited by and defined by the process, determination of patentability is based on the product itself. The patentability of a product does not depend on its method of production. If the product in the product-by-process claim is the same as or obvious from a product of the prior art, the claim is unpatentable even though the prior product was made by a different process.” In re Thorpe, 777 F.2d 695, 698, 227 USPQ 964, 966 (Fed. Cir. 1985)

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 6-9 and 11-18 are allowed.

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed 8/20/04 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

Applicant's argument that Makoto fails to show the wire conductor integrally molded into the bobbin and have exposed terminal ends in the bobbin terminal portions, that receives external connection is noted.

However, Makoto clearly shows, the wire conductor (17) integrally molded into the bobbin (4a, 4b) in fig.1-4. Makoto also show the bobbin (4a, 4b) having exposed terminal ends portions (22), which receives the external connection (21).
